

PREMIER MEMBERS

BRITISH CHAMBER OF COMMERCE OF THE PHILIPPINES

Dear Member:

A HAPPY NEW YEAR TO YOU ALL!!

The BCCP in partnership with the European Chamber (ECCP) are holding a luncheon event on January 26th 2010 at the Makati Shangri-la, featuring as Guest Speaker Ambassador Alistair McDonald, the Head of Delegation of the European Union to the Philippines on the topic of

“The new EU after the Lisbon Treaty”

The Lisbon Treaty- a fresh start for the EU- was a long time in the making. But on Dec. 1, 2009 it finally entered into force, introducing sweeping institutional changes designed to streamline decision-making and raise the EU's stature in international affairs.

Hailed as the foundation for a more democratic, efficient and transparent union, the treaty brings to fruition a long quest to rewrite the EU's internal rules - all the more pressing after 10 more countries joined in 2004.

EU leaders have already filled two posts created by the treaty. They appointed Belgian Prime Minister Herman Van Rompuy as the EU's first full-time president, and the UK's Commissioner Catherine Ashton as its foreign policy chief.

That's merely the start...

In this context we are please to invite you to join us for our first Guest Speaker event in 2010.

To reserve your place please complete the attached registration form and return to the BCCP Secretariat as soon as possible.

Best regards,

Leslie
